

Vision

The Unitarian Universalist PEACE Fellowship is a thriving, welcoming, spiritual community, known as a trusting, respectful, inclusive Unitarian Universalist congregation. We provide a nurturing space for people of all ages and empower our congregants to be a positive force in the greater community.

Hallmarks include programming for children and adults, social action initiatives, and green practices. As a self-governing congregation, we emphasize strong direction from lay-leadership and recognize the value of professional ministerial and support staff in our future.”
